Education department

The Commune of Mondorf-les-Bains is responsible for organising primary education classes ('Enseignement fondamental') from cycle 1 to 4.

It welcomes 400 pupils across the Grand-Duchess Maria Teresa school complex.

The fundamental goal of the school service is to reinforce fruitful cooperation between the Commune, parents, teachers, pupils ans authorities.

In addition to the aim of promoting education, it also draws up the school budget and the wraparound care plan. There are no school fees for children who live in the Commune of Mondorf-les-Bains. For any children from outside the Commune, a request (and supporting documents) must be approved by the College of Aldermen.Early education ('Précoce') is free for children living in the Commune of Mondorf-les-Bains, and children from the Commune are given priority. Early education is not compulsory.

The educationdepartment contributes to the school's pedagogical input and is an important advisory body within the Commune.

Hand in hand with the pupils, it accompanies them on their primary school educational learning path.

The education department is also responsible for pupil enrolment, enrolments for religious instruction, moral and social education, providing school attendance certificates, etc., and it also.

Organises language courses for adults.
