Mondorf-les-Bains, a place where you can enjoy life every day.

Dear citizens, dear tourists, dear visitors,

Are you looking for the perfect combination of relaxation and entertainment ? Mondorf-les-Bains is the ideal destination.

Whether it's culture, family activities, gastronomy, sport or fitness, you'll find the serenity you deserve at Mondorf-les-Bains.

Already 40 years old, the CASINO 2000, with its unprecedented fame, offers permanently modernised gaming rooms and a variety of concerts and shows.

In 1988, a brand-new spa and health centre was inaugurated more than a century after its beginnings, offering relaxation, fitness and wellness activities.

As well as these key players, you can discover a historical and cultural heritage that has been preserved for many years, enjoy attractions and events throughout the year for a diverse public, and shop for a little window shopping.

Enjoy this peaceful environment from the terrace of a bar, while strolling through the beautifully wooded spa park or simply from the bench of one of our 13 playgrounds for the pleasure of the little ones.

And to round off a perfect day, opt for a good dinner and a lovely night in one of our accommodation options, ranging from inns to 4-star hotels*.

We are constantly committed to and investing in the development of our spa town, so that we can best meet the needs and expectations of our residents and visitors.

We wish you a pleasant stay and well-deserved relaxation.

THE MUNICIPALITY

I.

THE THREE VILLAGES

Mondorf-les-Bains is a charming town of more than 5.000 inhabitants ideally located in the south-east of the Grand Duchy of Luxembourg, close to the Luxembourg Moselle, France and Germany. The river Gander ("Albaach"), which is crossing the thermal park, forms the natural border between Mondorf-les-Bains (L) and Mondorff (F).

It is home to the only casino and thermal infrastructure in the Grand-Duchy and benefits from all the advantages of a large city :

- Everything within walking distance,
- Easily accessible by public transport,
- Numerous leisure and relaxation activities,
- Captivating architecture and heritage,
- A wide range of shops,
- A large choice of hotels and restaurants

In short, an ideal place to relax and recharge your batteries.

It consists of three villages :

Mondorf-les-Bains

Ellange

Altwies

MONDORF-LES-BAINS

Offering leisure and entertainment as well as health care and fitness, Mondorf-les-Bains is worth visiting. Via the CASINO 2000, an internationally renowned attraction with some 500.000 visitors per year, the MONDORF Domaine Thermal, an equally renowned establishment with its modern and quality facilities or through more than 100 hectares of greenery (woods, public squares, parks and gardens), you will find, in Mondorf-les-Bains, the breath of fresh air you deserve, away from the hustle and bustle of everyday life.

ELLANGE

The charming rural village of Ellange is ideal for long walks in the heart of the woods while offering nature lovers a panoramic view of its natural landscape.

A short distance away is Ellange-Gare, where the old "Janglisbunn" railway line used to run. It gave its name to the "Jangeli" cycle path.

ALTWIES

Altweis is a charming village with attractive cultural sites such as the Castel, a rocky outcrop crowned by a chapel on the French side of the Gander, the former Hôtel de Paris where Victor Hugo stayed in 1871 (from 23/08 to 23/09), as well as the post office which he regularly visited at the time. Today the Tavern bears his name.

Its serene atmosphere guarantees you beautiful excursions along the well-trodden paths to Mondorf-les-Bains in complete peace of mind.

HISTORY

The first inhabitants of Mondorf-les-Bains were Celts. The Roman presence began in 65 BC. The Chapel of Saint-Sauveur, known as the "Chapelle du Castel", was built on Celtic fortifications to protect the Metz-Trier road. Its access path is marked by steles representing the seven Sorrows of the Virgin Mary.

Situated at the crossroads between Germany and France, Mondorf has been plundered, burned and rebuilt many times. The church of Saint-Michel, built in 1065, was rebuilt four times, the last time in 1764.

The origin of the name Mondorf-les-Bains goes back to the Carolingian dynasty, i.e. Frankish kings. Charlemagne had a niece called "Muomina", who donated all her possessions to the abbey of Echternach. Among these possessions was the small village, which thus took the name of "Muomendorph". Charlemagne married Hildegarde de Thionville. As a result, he was forced to travel frequently between Thionville and his small capital of Aachen, and had a residence ("Pfalz") built in Mondorf, which served as a relay.

A border village between France and Luxembourg, the toponymy of Mondorf has varied over time : Muomundorf (960), Mamendorf (1030), Muomendorph (1060), Mumendorf (1161), Mundorf (1572), Mondorf (1681), Mendorf (17th century), Mondorf (1793), Mondorff (1801).

The Treaty of Versailles of 1769 fixed the current border, splitting the parish of Mondorff in two. The Luxembourg part kept the name of Mondorff until 1872, date of the creation of the first post office in the bathing village. Following the delivery of a postmark, which by mistake of interpretation, only presented one final "f" at the end of Mondorf, the Luxembourgish part of the twin locality adopted the new name in 1878, with the addition: -les-Bains ("les Bains" meaning "bath" (Mondorf-les-Bains in Luxembourgish : Munnerref)

The Dutch domination in the 19th century and other constraints were to change the destiny of the village, which had been an agricultural and wine-producing village. Because of the Dutch monopoly and the exorbitant taxes on salt, people started to search for salt in Luxembourg. In Mondorf there was a small stream with slightly salty water.

1841, a key date in the history of our beautiful city, marks the beginning of a long series of transformations, renovations, demolitions and constructions.

Despite numerous setbacks, Mondorf-les-Bains has never stopped to do everything possible to become what it is today, a unique destination.

1841 : start of drilling, by Karl Gotthelf Kind, who created the first thermal spring (for rock salt research) on the initiative of the notary Ledure.

1846 : after 5 years of effort, the drilling rig broke at a depth of 730 meters (European record at the time) and the works. The borehole found no salt gem but, at 460 meters, a mineralized spring was discovered. The notary Ledure proposed to use the Kind source for curative purposes.

June 20th, 1847 : inauguration of the first thermal establishment.

1852 : 1st request for the establishment of a casino by the Blanc brothers and opening of The Hotel du Grand-Chef.

May 28th, 1855 : William III, King of the Netherlands and Grand Duke of Luxembourg from 1849 to 1890, stayed at the Hotel du Grand-Chef of Mondorf-les-Bains with his brother Henri, the Prince of Orange-Nassau and Vice-Admiral of the Dutch Fleet. William III was William's II son from the Netherlands and Anna Pavlovna from Russia and therefore the nephew of Tsar Nicholas I of Russia.

August 1855 : Edmond de la Fontaine (alias Dicks), son of Governor Gaspard Théodore Ignace de la Fontaine and one of the greatest poets in Luxembourgish language, stayed in Mondorf-les-Bains at the Hotel du Grand-Chef where he wrote and composed "D'Mumm Sës oder De Gësch".

1864 : Mondorf already counted already 8 hotels : Hôtel de l'Etablissement in the Thermal Park, Hôtel de l'Europe, Hôtel du Grand-Chef, Hôtel du Commerce, Hôtel de France, Hôtel du Nord, Hôtel des Bains and Hôtel de Luxembourg.

November 15th, 1864 : the spring of Mondorf as well as the outbuildings were sold to a group of investors who created "la Société Anonyme des Bains de Mondorf".

August 27th, 1868 : birth of John Grün in Mondorf-les-Bains (later known as the strongest man in the world)

August 26th, 1871 : Victor Hugo having successively been expelled from France, Belgium and from the island of Jersey, finds refuge in Guernsey and in the Grand-Duchy of Luxembourg. He began a spa treatment from August 26th, 1871 in Mondorf, on where he completed the collection "L'Année terrible". He stayed at the Hôtel de Paris in Altwies until September 24th, 1871.

August 28th, 1874 : Auguste Liesch, magistrate and politician (member of the Government and Council of State) was born in Mondorf-les-Bains. Above all his literary creation, "Maus Kätti" made him famous and still makes him one of the most famous writer in the Luxembourgish language.

August 28th, 1878 : the thermal resort is authorized by grand ducal decree to take the name of : Mondorf-les-Bains.

1882 : inauguration of the railway line, connecting Luxembourg to Remich and passing through the city of Mondorf-les-Bains ("Jangeli")

November 3rd, 1882 : birth in Mondorf-les-Bains of Frantz Clément, famous author, journalist and publisher. He was editor-in-chief of the daily newspaper Tageblatt and great critic of the Nazi regime. Arrested by the Gestapo in July 1941, he was deported to the concentration camps of Hinzert and Dachau. Having been declared unfit for work, he was transferred to the Killing Center in Hartheim / Linz in Austria on May 6th, 1942. There he was murdered with gas and cremated the same day.

1886 : creation of the thermal park by Edouard André.

April 21th, 1886 : takeover of the spa establishment by the state.

1896 : Grand Duke Adolphe and his brother Nicolas stayed in Mondorf-les-Bains with, among others, the Prime Minister Paul Eyschen.

1900 : creation of a thermal water bottling station of Mondorf water by the industrialist Charles Bettendorf.

1901 : the same Charles Bettendorf started in the construction of 5 houses of character "Art Nouveau" style in Avenue des Bains.

1903 : inauguration of the railway line rail "Jängelchen" link between Mondorf and Thionville.

1907 : construction of the synagogue. Consecrated September 26th, 1908 in the presence of Rabbi Fuchs, it is the symbol of the first generation of Jews settled in Mondorf.

June 05th-12th, 1910 : Aviation Week with the competition of the Aero-club of the Grand Duchy of Luxembourg in Mondorf-les-Bains. Newspapers estimated that more than 100.000 people (which was almost half of the country's population) came to Mondorf during this famous week.

November 3rd, 1912 : death of John Grün.

1913 : drilling of a second fountain : the fountain Marie-Adélaïde at a depth of 464 meters.

1920 : inauguration of the first John Grün monument.

February 14th, 1923 : Grand-Duchess Charlotte visited the thermal park.

1926 : inauguration of the Palace Hotel as well as the new hydrotherapy, today known as "Al Thermen".

1937 : pianist Arthur Rubinstein and composer Maurice Ravel have been staying in Mondorf-les-Bains at the Hotel du Grand-Chef. Ravel stayed there for almost a whole year.

Between 1939 and 1945 : occupation of Mondorf-les-Bains by the Germans.

May-November 1945 : the Palace Hotel has been transformed in pre-trial prison for the Nazi leaders before their transport to Nuremberg.

1948 : purchase by the State of the Palace Hotel, put under sequestration after the war, to install the administration of Mondorf-Etat, as well as the medical, dance and reading rooms.

1952-53 : Jean Monnet, then president of the European Community of Coal and Steel (ECSC), stayed for 8 months in Mondorf-les-Bains.

First at the Hotel du Grand-Chef and then at 36, avenue des Bains, during the months when the hotel was closed. He received there the Heads of State of France and Germany, Belgium, the Netherlands, Italy and Luxembourg and therefore laid the foundations for the functioning of the newly created ECSC at Mondorf-les-Bains.

1963 : inauguration of the new pavilion overlooking the Kind fountain.

1970 : visit of Yugoslav President Tito, who stayed at the Hotel du Grand-Chef.

1979 : drilling of the Michel Lucius fountain at a depth of 750 meters.

April 16th, 1983 : CASINO 2000 opens its doors.

May 1st, 1988 : official inauguration of the new thermal and health center.

2002 : Shimon Peres stayed at the Hotel du Grand Chef.

April 24th, 2015 : visit of cosmonaut Alexei Leonov, the first man to go out into space on March 18th, 1965, at the Fligermusée.

June 22th, 2015 : visit in the pouring rain of the Grand-Ducal couple the day before the national day in Mondorf-les-Bains. Inauguration of the Maison Relais.

May 13th, 2016 : inauguration of the Clara Reinert Garden at the entrance of Mondorf-les-Bains (from Altwies). Clara Reinert (1888-1968) was a midwife who maintained a "small maternity" in her house, rue du Moulin.

April 13th, 2019 : visit of Russian cosmonaut Gennadi Padalka at the aviation museum (cosmonaut having spent 878 days in space - during 5 missions)

24 July 2022 : festivities to celebrate 175 years of thermal baths at Mondorf-les-Bains.

2023 : CASINO 2000 celebrates its 40th anniversary.

THE MUNICIPALITY IN THE WORLD

Mondorf-les-Bains, known beyond the borders.

TWIN CITIES

For more than six decades, Mondorf-les-Bains is part of the oldest twinning circle in Europe.

Indeed, Mondorf-les-Bains is paired since 1956 with Bad Homburg (Germany), Cabourg (France), Chur (Switzerland), Mayrhofen (Austria), Terracina (Italy) and since 2018 with Vale de Cambra (Portugal). Mondorf-les-Bains is able to enhance its image outside of the Grand Duchy, both in terms of tourism and socio-cultural activities.

HOME OF WORLD FAMOUS ATHLETES

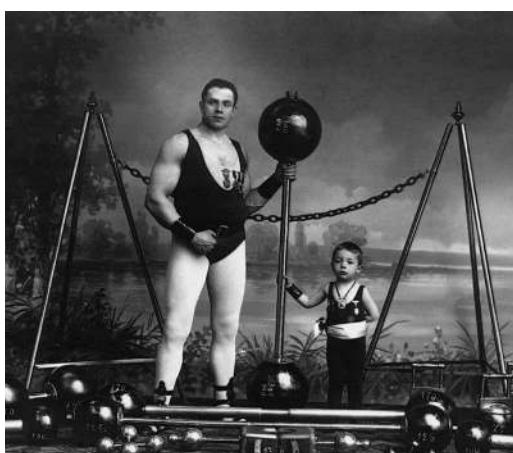

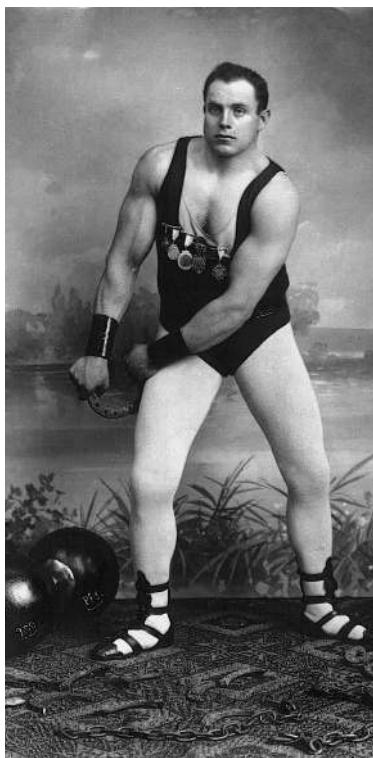

John Grün

In the last years of the 19th century, Mondorf-les-Bains was proud to have seen the birth of the strongest man in the world on August 27th, 1868: John Grün.

His life would undoubtedly have passed peacefully in his hometown, despite his prodigious muscular strength, if the taste for adventure had not prompted the young teenager to emigrate in 1889 in the United States, where he enjoyed a remarkable career and notoriety. From a sporting point of view, John Grün is the first Luxembourgish, before many others, who has done honor abroad to his small Luxembourgish homeland and, as such, his memory deserves to be preserved.

This is recalled by two monuments. An ancient one in the street that bears his name (located two steps from his birthhouse which is still in good condition today) as well as a more recent one next door to town hall.

Some of its equipment (weights, dumbbells, cast iron blocks, etc.) is on display at the Sportscenter Roll Delles of Mondorf-les-Bains.

Jeff Strasser

Jeff Strasser, born in 1974, has made a fairly luxembourgish career in French and German first division as one of the rare successful professional footballers from Luxembourg. At the age of 15, he entered the Lycée Robert Schuman in Metz in the sports-studies section, to be trained at FC Metz, with which he played 78 matches in Ligue 1. Ten years later, he played for three seasons at FC Kaiserslautern. In 2002, he joined Borussia Mönchengladbach for 3 years. He played 194 matches in the Bundesliga. In 2006, he returned to France to RC Strasbourg then to FC Metz. In 2009, he signed at the club of the Grasshoppers Zurich. He played 98 games for the national team and scored 7 goals. He returned to live in his native village of Mondorf-les-Bains and passed his professional coaching license in Germany (UEFA PRO Licence).

Jeff is still one of the sports ambassadors of Mondorf-les-Bains.

Best Luxembourg sportsman in 1999 and 2001.

The Schleck Brothers

After Jeff, two sportsmen were born who were to prove to be two legends of cycling: Fränk & Andy SCHLECK born respectively in 1980 and 1985. Cycling enthusiasts from a young age, their passion has continued to evolve as well as their awards. A small overview of the best results of their careers :

Fränk :

- April 16th, 2006, Fränk won the great Dutch classic, the Amstel Gold Race
- July 18th, 2006, he won the Alpe d'Huez in the 15th stage of the Tour de France
- Best Luxembourg sportsman in 2006
- July 20th , 2008, he seized the famous yellow jersey at the end of the 15th stage between Embrun and Prato Nevoso, in Italy
- July 22nd, 2009, he won the 17th stage of the Tour de France in Le Grand-Bornand
- July 21st, 2011, he finished second in the 18th stage of the Tour de France 2011 in the summit of the Col du Galibier, just behind his brother Andy.

July 24th, 2011 - Great premiere at the Tour de France. The Schleck brothers met again on the podium in Paris. Andy and Fränk are second and third respectively.

- September 7th, 2015, he won the 16th so-called "queen stage" of the Tour of Spain

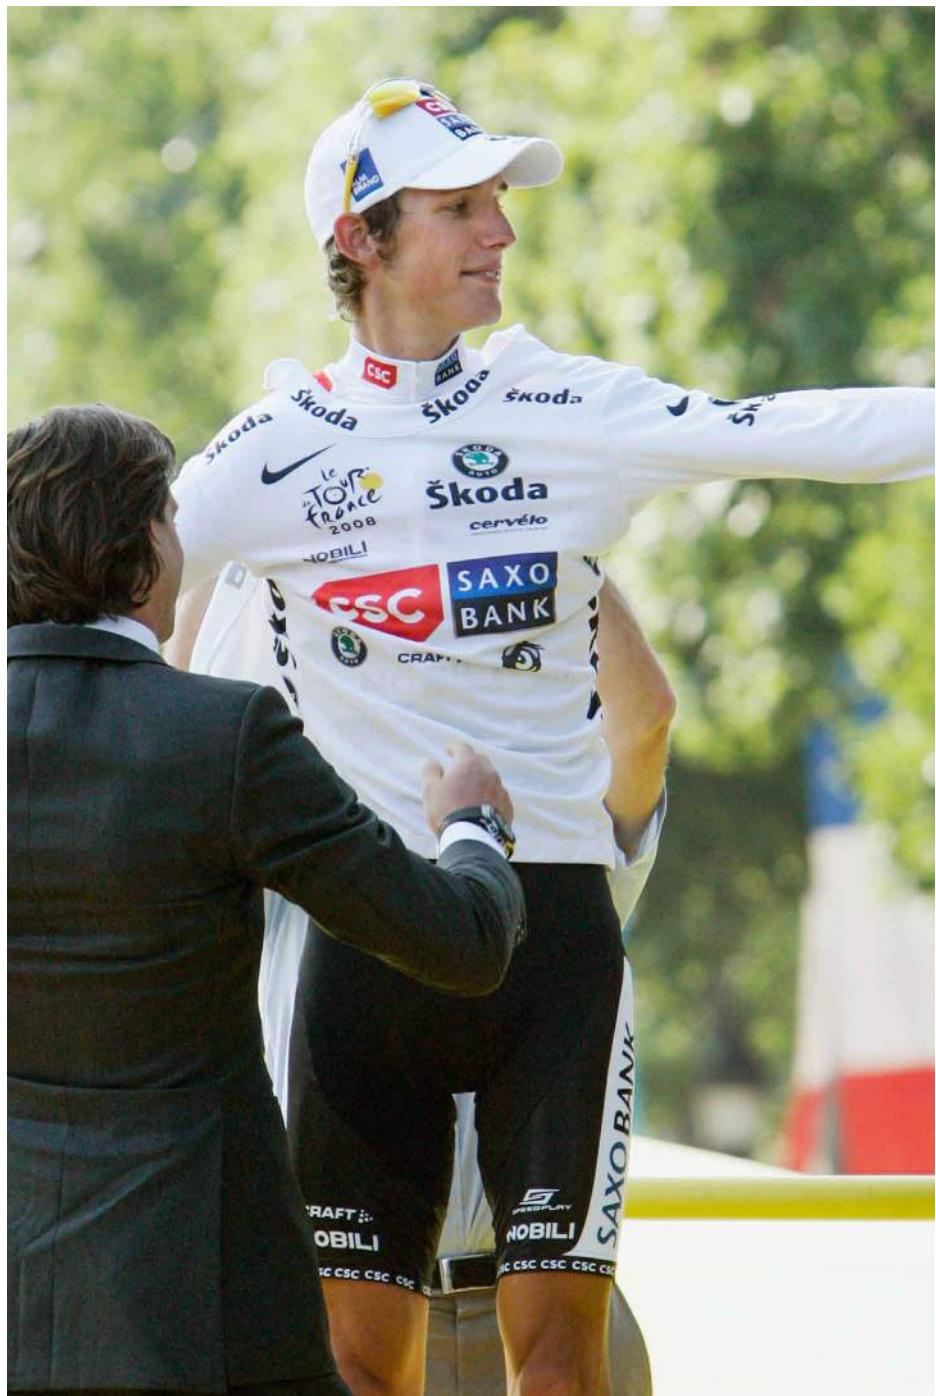

Andy :

- In 2007, he was the best youngster in the Giro d'Italia and 2nd in the general classification
- July 27th, 2008 on the Champs-Elysées podium, he received the white jersey for the best youngster of the Tour de France from S.A.R. Prince Félix
- He won the 95th edition of Liège-Bastogne-Liège in 2009, 5th in 2010, then 3rd in 2011, 2nd in the Flèche Wallonne in 2009
- Best youngster of the Tour de France in 2009 and 2010 without forgetting his best victory : yellow jersey and winner of the Tour de France 2010
- Luxembourg champion in 2009, 2nd in 2010 and 2011 and 3rd in 2012
- Best Luxembourg sportsman in 2009, 2010 and 2011

His talent is well established, as it is that of his brother before him.

Mondorf-les-Bains remains proud to be the birthplace of these emblematic champions.

THERMAL PARK

In Mondorf-les-Bains on more than 100 hectares of greenery through woods, public squares, parks and gardens, you get a real breath of fresh air in an idyllic setting to recharge your batteries, evacuate the tension of bad days or simply a nice hike.

Parc thermal

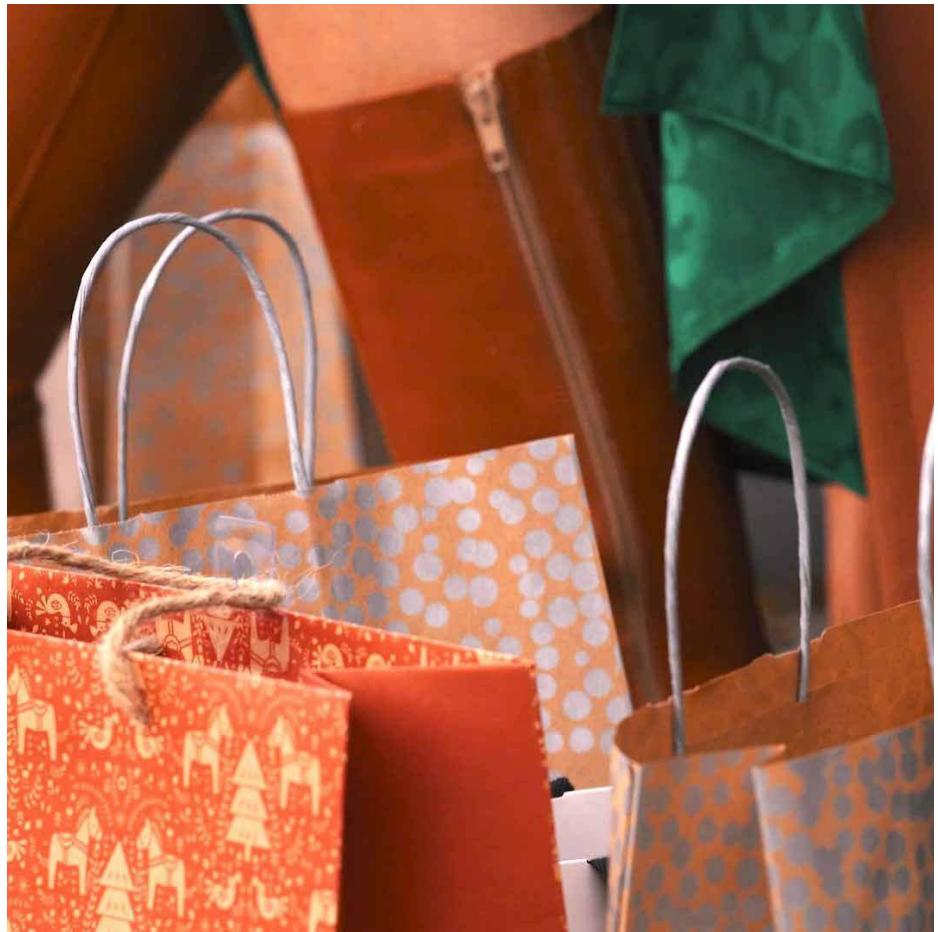

On more than 42 hectares, the Domaine Thermal park is a delight for nature lovers since more than 135 years. Its magnificent floral arrangements, its many sculptures, its hundred-year-old trees and its recreation areas make it a pleasant place to relax. The "Al Thermen" or Ancient Thermes, located at the entrance of the park, the Orangery a few steps from the Gander, the Rose Garden, the Waasserhaus, the lecture hall and the old pavilion from the source Kind are all places that Sunday walkers discover during their stroll along the landscaped paths.
